JUROR: Bruce Garrity received his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Painting and Drawing from the University of Delaware, and a Master of Fine Arts in Painting from the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He currently teaches at Rutgers University in Camden, New Jersey. In addition, he has taught at The University of Delaware and several NJ area colleges. Garrity is a painter whose love and respect for the forest grew from spending long hours and days in the woods of Alaska as a boy. His current work is focused on the woodland interior as a site for events that stem from memories of experiences as a child, an adolescent and an adult. His work has been featured in solo and group exhibitions, most recently in the exhibitions "As Safe as Yesterday Is" and "Bruce Garrity: Smaller Works" at the Rehoboth Art League in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, "Bruce Garrity: Paintings and Works in Progress" at The University of Delaware Department of Art Gallery in Newark, Delaware and "Into the Woods" at the Frank Guaracini Jr. Fine and Performing Art Center, in Vineland, New Jersey. The artist's work is in numerous private and several public collections including The Stedman Art Gallery of Rutgers University in Camden, New Jersey and The Hoyt Institute in New Castle, Pennsylvania. Since 2006, Garrity has been the Curator of Hopkins House Gallery of Contemporary Art, for the Camden County Cultural and Heritage Commission, mounting seven to nine exhibitions a year. Past exhibitions include: "Garden in Winter", "Domestic Bliss", and "Object Desire". "Seeing Voices: The Visual Voice" and "To Be or Not To Be: A Painter" each of which included a two day symposium in collaboration with the Stedman Gallery and Department of Fine Arts at Rutgers/Camden were curated in 2010 and 2009 respectively.

ELIGIBILITY: This is an open, juried competition for works in all media. All work must be original (not conceived or executed in a workshop or class setting with instructor supervision.) Open to artist 18 or older residing in Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Bedford, Blair, Butler, Cambria, Clarion, Clearfield, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Jefferson, Lawrence, Mercer, Somerset, Venango, Washington and Westmoreland counties.

MEDIA: Artists may submit up to three entries in any two or three dimensional media including photography. Entry must not exceed 60" in any direction. (Including framing) Total weight must not exceed 200 pounds. All entries must be ready for exhibition. Work must have been created in the past three years. Works previously accepted in past Annuals or History Through Art Exhibits are not eligible. Accepted prints/photos must not be exhibited in area galleries concurrent to this exhibition.

ENTRY FEES: A $30.00 non-refundable entry fee (US funds only) must accompany entries. Make checks payable to: SPCArts.

INSURANCE AND LIABILITY: All works accepted for inclusion in the Greater Latrobe School District (GLSD) Exhibition and Gala will be insured by the GLSD. All works accepted and delivered early to Greater Latrobe High School (including any works purchased by the GLSD) will be insured, stored and delivered to SAMA on the delivery dates stipulated in this prospectus. All work will be insured by the Southern Alleghenies Museum while in the Museum. Neither the Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts, Inc., the Greater Latrobe School District nor the Southern Alleghenies Museum is responsible for any damage to work during transit (except for works in transit from Greater Latrobe High School to SAMA delivered by representative of the GLSD.)

SALE OF WORK: Artists will be notified of any work sold. SPCArts will retain 25% commission on any works purchased by the GLSD. For works accepted into SAMA, the museum charges 20% commission. A 20% commission will be retained by the Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts. Artists should take the total 40% commission into consideration in pricing their work for sale at SAMA. Work will not be released before the 15th Annual Exhibition closes. (February 12, 2011.)

ACCEPTED ENTRIES: All 2D entries must be suitably framed and wired for hanging. All accepted works must be ready to install. Inadequate framing/construction results in disqualification for exhibit and ineligibility for insurance coverage. A Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts or the Southern Alleghenies Museum representative will decide if work is suitable for exhibition. Juror Notification Cards will be sent October 1, 2010. Notices for works accepted for inclusion in the GLSD Exhibition and Gala will be sent with Juror Notification Cards.
