Welcome

Welcome to the 23rd Annual Juried Regional Exhibition. The Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts is pleased to offer this exciting exhibition opportunity to the artists residing in our 19 county area. The accepted works reflect the freshness and energy in the art of emerging artists as well as current works of established artists providing all of us with a great variety of subject matter, mediums, and techniques.

The Council would like to thank our sponsors and patrons (listed on page 24) without whose generosity and assistance it would not be possible to present this exhibit. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art at Ligonier for again providing us this venue and to thank our juror artist Thomas McNickle.

Please enjoy the exhibit and congratulations to the exhibiting artists.

The Board of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts dedicates this catalogue and the 23rd Annual Juried Regional Exhibition In Honor of Janet Bucciarelli in gratitude for her service and support of the arts.

Janet Bucciarelli has been a long and dedicated supporter of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts and its mission to promote the arts and provide exhibition opportunities for talented artists. She is currently a member of the Council's Advisory Board. Before relocating to the Nashville, TN area with her husband, Gary two years ago, she was the President of the SPCArts for five years after serving on the Council's Board of Directors.

Janet was the Museum Coordinator/ Manager and Exhibition Curator of the Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art in Ligonier Valley from 2003-2008. During her tenure there, Janet curated and executed four original fine arts exhibits a year, created two new annual fundraisers to attract new audiences and raise funds for capital improvements, wrote grants, grew the Museum Auxiliary from twenty members to over eighty, added Puppet Theatre and Summer Arts Camps to the museum's education programs, increased community and museum programming and nurtured donor relations. She reached out to organizations such as the Council to develop and recruit top tier artists to exhibit in the museum.

To promote the museum in the community and to partner with other non-profits for mutual benefit, Janet served on the Boards of the Ligonier Valley YMCA, the Oakbridge Academy of Arts and the Ligonier 250 Board of Directors and Steering Committee, and enjoyed volunteering for Chamber of Commerce events.

A graduate of Seton Hill University, Janet has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Drawing and Design and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art Education. She interned at the Carnegie Museum of Art. Prior to working at the Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art, Janet was the Director of Art and Design for a nationally franchised restaurant company, where she won several awards. She also has experience as an Art Educator, Marketing Director and free lance Graphic Designer.

JUROR STATEMENT

First, let me say that my decisions regarding the pieces selected for this show are my opinions. They are not etched in stone nor would they be the same if another juror were choosing the show.

That said, let me give you the guidelines I apply when selecting a show. When I look at art I look for two things: technique (style) and content (meaning). All work leans toward one or the other. While solid technique is at times gratifying, it seldom holds one's interest as long as there is little content beyond that of certain facility.

On the other hand, content alone with little or no technique behind it quickly leaves one struggling to understand another person's artistic statement.

For me then, the best work is that which combines style and meaning so that the viewer is rewarded with both solid technique and the experience of another person's vision.

Each must complement the other.
